The Pictured Story of 1960 at Spring Hill
A Jesuit Liberal Arts Coed College in Mobile, Alabama

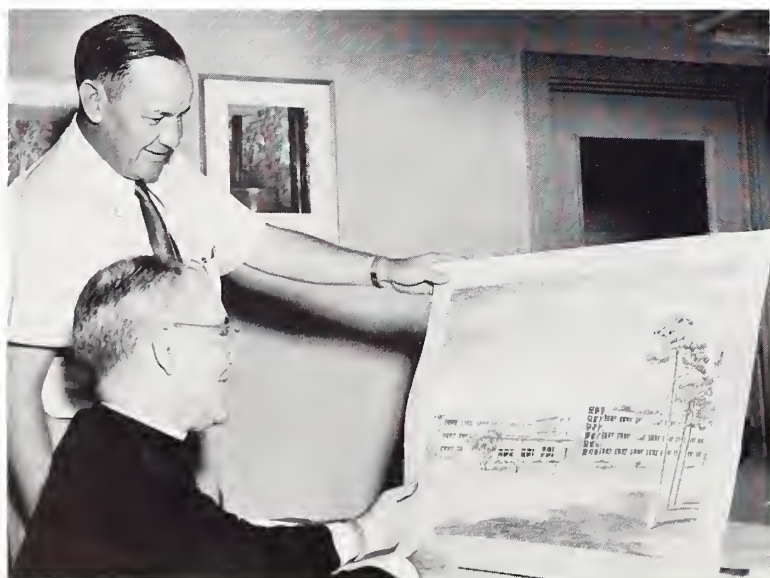

ANDREW CANNON SMITH, S.J.
President, 1952-1959
Dean of the College, 1934-1952

DEDICATION

The problem of a dedication for this 1960 Torch was dramatically solved for us at about 6 o'clock in the evening of December 3, when the news spread rapidly across campus that Spring Hill had a new President. Students thronged to the A.B. Quadrangle; windows were thrown open to the Fathers' recreation room on the second floor, and Father Smith looked out to accept the ringing tribute of those who were just beginning to realize that a familiar and beloved figure would soon be absent from the Hill, where he had served as professor, Dean, and President for more than 25 years. Graduating from Spring Hill in 1916, Father Smith entered the Society of Jesus and was a teaching scholastic here in 1923-24, during which he was moderator of the College's first yearbook and of the SPRINGHILLIAN QUARTERLY. He received his doctorate in English from the University of Chicago in 1934, and began his career as Dean and Professor of English at the College. Appointed President in 1952, he began the program which has brought unprecedented expansion in the Hill's student body and facilities. In addition to three new buildings, all others were extensively renovated, and the faculty was correspondingly enlarged and strengthened.

Right: The 7 o'clock Mass was said regularly by Father Smith in the Student Chapel.

FACULTY

Taking over the reins December 3, Father Crandell was not a stranger to Spring Hill and its problems. He had taught here from 1933 through 1935, served as Provincial Superior of all Southern Jesuits from 1950 to 1956, and was Dean of Loyola University in New Orleans from 1942 to 1950.

AVENUE OF OAKS, 1960

The traditional clear skies and warm weather were on hand as the procession of faculty and seniors moved out of Byrne Library at 10 in the morning of May 24. His Excellency, Most Reverend Archbishop Thomas J. Toolen, of Mobile-Birmingham, gave diplomas to 145.

With unprecedented speed, the new grads lined up for this picture and waited for the professional photographer to show up. He didn't, so Father Anderson obliged.

Mr. Billy Heath and student orchestra played during program intermissions.

SENIOR PROM

Mobile's Country Club was again the scene, but that scene was altered this year as the Senior Class chose to attend and dance without wearing those hot commencement gowns. E. B. Coleman's 16-piece band, and vocalists, provided the music. Entertainment was provided by what has become a tradition: diving exhibitions by the graduates.

Chosen as Spring Hill's "Miss Glamour" by campus-wide student vote was JULIE MAYFIELD, senior from Baynton Beach, Fla. Julie majored in Education. Other Finalists in the voting were Kathy Piazza, Cindy Schumacher, Geri Packard, Jeanne Edgar, Mary Cooper, Rhoda Heile, Gayle Brueggeman, Sissie Crumley and Lynn Cavanaugh.

MARY COOPER, Birmingham, the only freshman to make this year's list of "Favorites," was also chosen as one of this year's Hill representatives for Mobile's Azalea Trail.

Inseparable PAUL JURGENSEN and JOE KATTER, brothers in Tri-Beta and Omicron, sweated out four years of Pre-Med and still found time to serve. Paul made Alpha Sigma Nu, won the Freshman Cup in 1957, worked on the MENDELIAN. Joe gave his voice to the Chapel Choir and his savvy to the Executive Council.

'Guys & Dolls'

RHODA HEILE, shown above with DAN LEACH, made "Who's Who" after transferring here from Nazareth College, Ky. At the Hill she worked on The MOTLEY and with the Glee Club. Dan sang a lead in our 1959 production of BRIGADOON, and also sang many roles with the Mobile Opera Guild, including DON PASQUALE and ROMEO AND JULIET.

JOE BOWLING and VELTIN BOUDREAUX made "Who's Who" as Biology majors and fellow members of Alpha Sigma Nu, Tri-Beta, and Scabbard & Blade. Joe prexied Tri-Beta; Veltin captained the Band; both served on the Representative Council.

Featured on these pages are our candidates for "Who's Who in American Colleges, 1960" (chosen by a faculty-student committee) and the TORCH-sponsored winners of coed beauty-and-popularity awards (chosen by campus-wide student vote). Miss Torch and her Court of Favorites were introduced at the Student Government Dance December 8.

LYNN CAVANAUGH, our 1960 "Miss TORCH," has already been introduced on page one, but here is another picture. Lynn was a "Favorite" in 1958 and 1959.

↑

MIKE O'DONNELL, CAROL CAMPBELL, and MIKE McDERMOTT are the "Who's Who" trio above. O'Donnell served on the Executive Council, sang with the Chapel Choir, and was an Omicron Sigma. Carol transferred here from Loyola of Chicago and rang up perfect grades in Math. McDermott sparked this 1960 TORCH and prexied his class these past two years. Omicron Sigma and Representative Council.

JOHN HAFNER and KATHLEEN WILLIAMS also made "Who's Who." Kathy sang with the Glee Club and worked on The MOTLEY, which John edited this year. She also served as secretary of Chi Rho. Hafner made Alpha Sigma Nu and served as vice-president of Student Government. ROTC 1st-sergeant and Omicron Sigma.

↑

JEANNE EDGAR, Mobile Junior, was our 1959 Miss Torch, and easily made this year's Court of Favorites. Jeannie is "Sister" of Omicron Fraternity and a Chi Rho member. Accelerated English major.

ANGIE and BOBBIE MIKILL are sisters from West Palm Beach. Angie is a 1960 grad in Education, Bobbie a junior. Both are ROTC sponsors and Chi Rho sisters. Bobbie is also Sister of Omicron Sigma Fraternity.

TERRY O'DONNELL and JACK CARMODY made "Who's Who," Carmody as a SPRINGHILLIAN editor, Tri-Beta and Omicron member, and MENDELIAN staffer. Terry headed the Executive Council as Student Government President, fraternized with Omicron, and served as business manager of the SPRINGHILLIAN in 1958-59.

ANN McDONALD, a Mobile "Favorite" for the second year running, was an Azalea Trail representative in 1959, and has served as secretary of her class each year. ROTC Sponsor and Sister of Phi Omega. A sophomore, Ann is a Liberal Arts sophomore.

NEFF WEBER and CLIFF ALEXANDER, Physics majors, made "Who's Who" and Alpha Sigma Nu. Cliff lettered four years with the Tennis varsity. Weber served this year as executive officer of the ROTC cadets and has worked for both the SPRINGHILLIAN and Omicron. Both have held offices in the Physics Club.

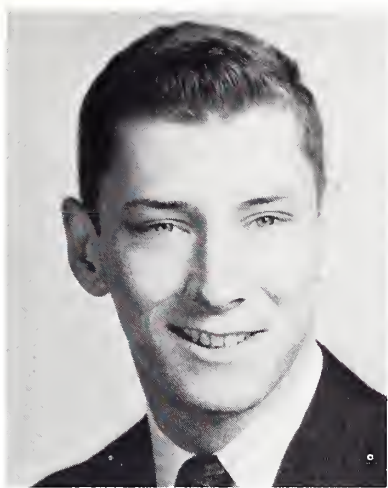

CAROL ANN O'DONOHUE, Birmingham Junior and English major, repeats as a Favorite. Carol Ann is Sister of Phi Omega Fraternity, captain of the cheerleaders, Sodalist, ROTC Sponsor, two-term secretary of Chi Rho, and was Sweetheart of her Sophomore Class.

CONNIE KEARNEY, a Favorite from Lynhurst, N. J., is a sophomore transfer from Fordham University. She is a Chi Rho member, an ROTC Sponsor, and is majoring in Education.

FRANK McCORMACK made "Who's Who" as cadet commander of the ROTC, Captain of Scabbard & Blade, Alpha Sigma Nu member, and president of the Physics Club. Chosen as Valedictorian, he wound up in hospital and was unable to attend Commencement. Graduated "summa cum laude," naturally.

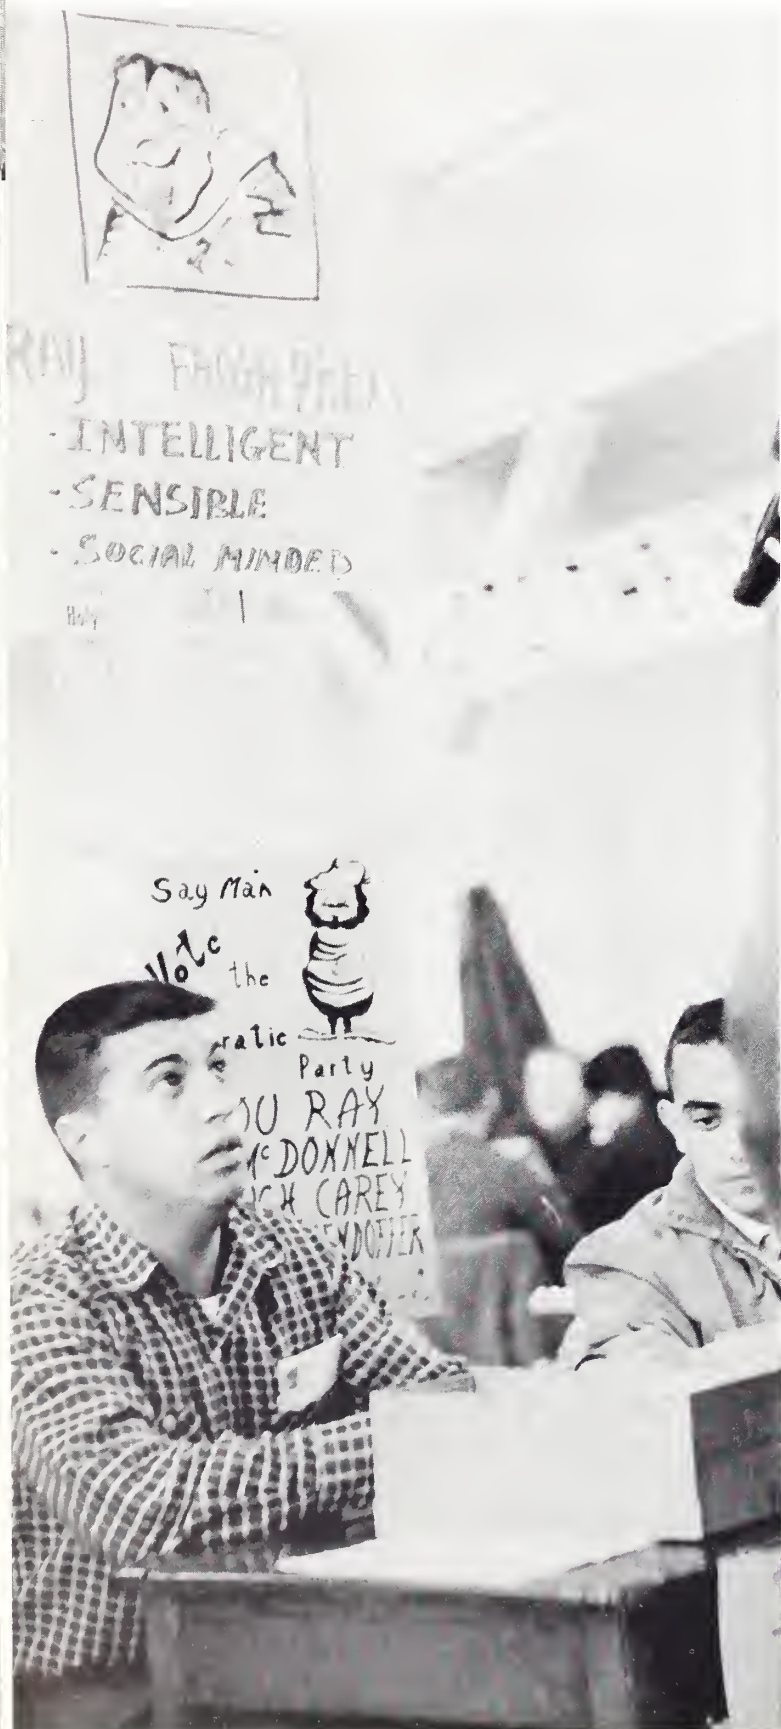

JOY SERDA, Mobile Junior, also repeats as a Favorite. Joy has been Sweetheart of Omicron Sigma and is an ROTC Sponsor. A Chi Rho member, she was chosen as Sister of her Sophomore class.

HAROLD KAY, REX ROS and SYD SMITH made "Who's Who." Kay was president of the International Relations Club, vice-president of Portier Debaters, chairmaned the Azalea Debate Tourney, member of the Knights of Columbus, SPRINGHILLIAN and MOTLEY staffs. Rex was chancellor of Phi Omega, member of Scabbard & Blade as a cadet 1st sergeant. Treasurer of the Senior Class, Rex also sat on the Interfraternity Council. Smith, vice-president of Yenni Players, had a lead role in this year's THE LADY IS NOT FOR BURNING. Before his college career was interrupted by military service, Sid had a lead role in the musical LAST CHANCE. Returning, he was president of the Veterans Club this year.

TRI-BETA

This honor society for Biology students continued to "deluge" the campus with its Sunday night go-to-meeting procession of speakers in the field of medicine and its related sciences. But members finally got a chance to relax at the annual barbecue given by Doctor Muscat at his home near Point Clear "across the Bay."

As Tom Millette handed over Omicron's gavel to new chancellor John Delano, he probably was remembering the past year's activities: that gay Polynesian party, first date on the fraternity's social calendar; the campus visit by Miss America 1959, Mary Ann Mobley; the Fraternity Masses, food drives, and Christmas Party for the needy Alabama Mission; the orphans' party at Allen Memorial Home; those Inter-Fraternity football games — and the rushing and initiation of the new members. Mr. Sam Betty won Omicron's "Alumnus of the Year" award. Final fling was at the Colony Restaurant May 14.

Phi Kappa THE FRATERNITY

Representing their chapter of the national fraternity, delegates of Phi Kappa Theta attended regional meetings in New Orleans and in Charlotte, N. C. In October, Father E. J. Weisenberg, S.J., visited the Hill chapter as national chaplain. Victory laurels came to Phi Kappa Theta in the interfrat football games. Parties included the "Winter Wonderland," the party in College Inn at Christmas for Mobile orphans, and the usual rush parties. New wool blazers, with the frat insignia, made their appearance.

The almost legendary "hairy-chested men" staged six gala affairs during the year, including their Christmas Party at the Bamboo Room, the Rush Party at Korbet's and the formal initiation of new members March 20 at Bayley's. Flinging superstition aside, Phi Omegas danced to their favorite LP's on Friday the 13th (May) at the Patrician Club. Members also gave their all in the interfraternity sports, and attended Mass in a body.

CHI RHO

Established activities were supplemented by new ones as CHI RHO continued to grow in numbers. The 2nd annual Fashion Show presented eight selected male models in addition to showcase coeds. For the United Fund, there was a "Powder-Puff Bowl" (touch football), with the frosh "Sissies" felling 0-8 to the older "Rocks." Father Schwing took on the job of moderating a successful coed I.M. sports league.

A continuous rush of business kept Student Government meeting and acting, beginning with planning and carrying out Freshman Week Orientation and assisting with Registration. The Welfare Committee crusaded for improved cafeteria and laundry service, and their efforts culminated in SAGA Food Service taking over, with its policy of unlimited seconds (except for Saturday night's steak). The Entertainment Committee brought Buddy Morrow here for the Student Government Dance, and Papa Celestine's Orchestra for the basketball season Homecoming initiated this year.

YENNI PLAYERS...

Bright days were forecast early for Yenni, when Mr. George Black joined the faculty in September as Yenni Director and instructor in English. Mr. Black was graduated from the Hill in 1957, after directing and starring in plays produced by Yenni or the two other theatre groups in Mobile. Two plays hit the boards here this year: Christopher Fry's THE LADY IS NOT FOR BURNING, and Emyln Williams's NIGHT MUST FALL. To relax, players partied April 1st.

Below: Jim Carney (as the Friar) muses over his problems during scene of THE LADY IS NOT FOR BURNING.

"The LADY Is Not For BURNING"

This modern metrical play by Christopher Fry was staged November 18-20 in The College Inn. Set in a mythical 15th-century English village, it presents a disillusioned soldier of fortune (Syd Smith) who wants to be hanged by Mayor Tyson (Claude Barbazon). The Mayor, however, would prefer to burn a local girl (Joan Barry) at the stake for witchcraft. A sub-plot has twin brothers (Saxton Berggren and John Schulte) vying for the hand of an heiress (Nancy Sheffield), who rejects their mother-in-law (Ann Flattery) and elopes with the Mayor's clerk (Bill Nailen).

Left: Flattery breaks up quarrel between her two "sons," Schulte and Berggren; Rogers, Carney and Barbazon; Barry and Smith; Berggren (on floor) shows that claim of his death is largely fictitious.

Below: Joan Barry reveals herself to be a mysteriously Oriental princess.

"NIGHT MUST FALL"

Emlyn Williams's mystery-melodrama opened April 6 in College Inn for a three-night run. Set in a quiet English village, it presents an illness-faking lady (Carol Blum) who falls for the charms of the local inn's bell-boy (John Delay), who turns out to be a psychopathic murderer. Her niece (Nancy Sheffield) also protects him, but he gets his final come-uppance from Scotland Yard (Bill Nailen).

Left: Inspector's interest in strange hatbox is frustrated by Olivia's claim to ownership.

Right: "Dan" confronts group who have ransacked his suitcase and were just about to open hatbox.

ARTISTS at WORK...

To the dismay of Hill singers, it was decided that putting on a musical comedy this year would take much time away from their studies, but there were other outlets: The Glee Club presented its programs, and the Mobile Symphony, Opera Guild and Workshop requisitioned the services of many Hill musicians. And a wood-carving course was added to courses previously available in the arts major.

Left: Peggy Spear and Bill Heath sang the lead roles in SONG OF NORWAY, November 27-28 production by Opera Guild Workshop.

PORTIER DEBATERS

Climaxing its activities with a tie for 2nd place in the Hill-sponsored Azalea Debate Tournament, Portier could look back and forward to debates at the University of Alabama, Emory University, Millsaps College, the University of Mississippi and Mississippi State College for Women. The year was brought to a well-rounded close by a Dinner-Dance at Gulas Restaurant.

Right: Mr. Charles McCready, Moderator of Portier, congratulates John Yannuzzi for his efforts at leading debaters to a successful season and building for future.

Detroiters repaired raft and painted equipment at Mirror Lake (and repainted parking stripes) as part of their service activities for the College.

VETERANS CLUB

The vets are now down to a corporal guard at the Hill, with student vets almost outnumbered by those on the faculty, but the Veterans Club is going strong. Parties, Thanksgiving Dinner at the Country Club, Veterans Day observance, Mass — and they took review of the ROTC Battle Group November 13.

Right: Portion of veterans group during ceremonies at memorial to Spring Hill men who have served in Armed Forces.

Latin-American Club

Most of the Cubans are gone, but many of the other "South of the Border" nations are represented at the Hill, and the "Latinos" had a big year: dance at VFW Hall Nov. 13, cocktail party at Andy's Lounge Dec. 12, party at Korbet's March 4, dinner-dance at the Colony May 8.

Left: Club's Moderator, Dr. Rafael Miranda, enjoys blandishments of officers Jose B. DeDianous (president), Susan Dekle (secretary-treasurer) and Emmanuel G. Revilla (vice-president).

CHICAGO and NEW YORK CLUBS

A big lift to school spirit was given by these clubs' sponsorship and participation in their big-league football game staged at Hartwell Field Nov. 14. Local disc-jockey Dick Price served as announcer, with Milt Bolling coaching the New Yorkers in their 6-32 loss. Lt. Col. Reynolds's Chicago "Bears" got off to a slow start, but sewed things up with three last-quarter touchdowns.

Left: New Yorkers gather for photo. Bob Colgan prexied group in 1959-60, with Jack Gleeson taking over for 1960-1961.

Journalism classes, instituted a few years back, have given the Hill's bi-weekly the nucleus of an efficient staff and a "feeder-line" for new talent. They showed their stuff by getting out 14 issues (a new record), including a hurry-up special job on the occasion of Father Crandell's inauguration as our new President. Rewards came in the form of a pre-Christmas pizza dinner at Tony's and a spring picnic, plus a party for staffers in the Bamboo Room.

The MOTLEY

After their first efforts were suppressed by Moderator Father Murray as too "morbid," MOTLEY staffers rebounded to produce their annual quarterly. Editor John Hafner was assisted by associate editors Louie Courie, Jim Howell, John Schulte and Jim Wallace; art editors Sylvia McGriff (who contributed pioneering photo essay); staffers George Warren, Rhoda Heile, Ray David, Marilyn Johnson, Joan Barry and Joy Serda.

Samples of material in Winter issue were Howell's "A Southern Tragedy," Bill Wade's "Hard and Fast," and Nailen's "A Mortician's Lament." Also Amen's "Student's Act of Contrition."

1960 TORCH

If all went well, you got your copy of this gem somewhere within a month or so of its projected appearance-date. Terry Twine braved the summer heat to collect for the 1959 ads and line up our faithful advertisers for this issue. Jerry Becker came through with the "Mad Comics" cartoons.

Above: Sue Ellert was among those talked into subscribing while passing through September registration line.

Right: Editor Mike McDermott led a faithful band (Colgan, Terry Hagendorfer, Nailen, Tamara Reiss, Mignon Kilday and Kathy Plant) against dictatorship of Moderator.

Below: Mignon and others ran balloting which saw Lynn Cavanaugh chosen as "Miss Torch 1960."

Right: Father Anderson, Moderator, as seen by victims.

BADGER ATHLETES

It was a familiar story, with variations: our teams were short on experienced "horses," but they carried opponents down to the wire. Especially gratifying were the traditionally undying support given by students and faculty, and the return of Hill tennis to prominence. Rooters turned out in force also for some fine intramural rivalries, sparked by the coeds and fraternities.

Above: Halboth and Moye in doubles action on Hill courts.

Left: Crane seeks to play possession ball against Nichols at Portier Center December 7; Tordella swings wide to run (or pass?) in intramural touch-football classic.

Right: Wilcox takes first on wild throw.

Below: Two new trophy cases were installed in Walsh Hall Lounge to accommodate memorials to Hill teams and past champions.

BASKETBALL

It shouldn't have happened to such a nice guy: this year's cage crew had only a handful of returning lettermen (no seniors among them), and both coaches departed. But young Glenn Murphy who had been coaching high school basketball in the St. Louis area after graduation from the Hill (B.S., history, 1953), undertook the job of rebuilding. This was further complicated when Father Dorn, who had been named Athletic Director, became ill; but Father Mulhern stepped in to fill that post. Only one victory, a thriller over Tampa, rewarded their efforts, but they put a scare into many opponents.

Two wins didn't quite balance 17 losses for our diamond squad, as errors and silent bats helped to keep a green but eager pitching staff in constant trouble. Each member of the no-seniors Hill squad showed flashes of fine play at bat and in the field, but as is usual with Badger teams there was that lack of poise which can only be cured by experience.

TENNIS

An experienced tennis squad paid off this spring with a fine record of nine wins against only three losses. Father Schwing took over the coaching reins, and was assisted by Mr. Tom Langan of Mobile. Crowds of students turned out for each home match and observed the proper tennis etiquette of applauding good shots—especially those by Hill players. Only Alexander was a senior on this year's squad — which raises hopes for an even better season 1960-61.

GOLF TEAM

With Colman McCarthy turning pro in his senior year (after winning the Mobile City championship for the second consecutive year), our golfers slumped to their worst season in many a spring, but still managed to stay on the black side of the ledger with six wins against five losses. Four of the losses came on the road, as only Tulane managed to top our linksmen here.

... INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

VOLLEYBALL

At the Nov. 1 end of regular season play, the Badger-League Billikens had a perfect record of 21-0. In the Freshman section, the Oilers piled up a 17-4 record over their rivals. Purple and White Leagues had the Irish and Bulldogs on top, with 21-6 and 22-2 records, respectively. For the coeds, Geri Packard, Mary Jane Murphy and Aileen Flynn led the Falcons over five rivals.

FOOTBALL

Until too many breaks and sprains started heading for Dr. Browning's office across Old Shell Road, there was a fantastic series of real block-and-tackle football games, without pads or headgear, which saw Brooke Arnold and Jack Scannel leading their Florida squad to victories over all comers. These led to the famous New York-Chicago challenge match at Hartwell Field, and the coed touch-football frenzies (both covered elsewhere). In regular I. M. play, the Arabs lost only one game in topping the White League, with the Bluejays winning the Purple crown in a playoff against the Irish. The Freshman League Oilers scored 226 points and held rivals to 38, while both Gauchos and Spartans tied in the Badger League with 7-2 records.

BOWLING

The Straight-Balls, 2nd-half champions, knocked off the 1st-half champion Fire-Balls, 3-1, and all participants celebrated with Moderator Father Schwing at a Camellia Lanes barbecue May 5. On the winning team were Jim Murphy, Imarde, Durel, Halboth and Jack Smith, with Caerver, Calandra, Non Stuardi and Yemm pitching for the Fire-Balls. Tony Schwing won the high 3-game series trophy; J. B. Egan, high singles; Layne, highest average; Nan Stuardi, highest coed 1-game score; Ann Doody, high 3-game score.

BASKETBALL

The Packers, led by Dan Canlin's furious play, knocked off their highly touted Irish Randag-led rivals in Inter-League Tourney play, with the Gators topping competition in the Badger League, and the Rams taking regular-season honors in the Freshman League. The Faculty team won over an Alumni squad in a full-fledged rivalry (with half-time show) at U.M.S.

SOFTBALL

Dixie Cahill pitched the Senoritas to an 18-2 victory over their rival Mademoiselles to win the Coed League championship with 3 wins and no losses. In the Purple and White Leagues, the Eagles beat Arabs in a playoff for the season title, last to the Colts in their first Inter-League Tourney game, then came back to win that tournament by licking the Oilers twice. The Valves took the Badger League championship from close-rivals, the Gators.

GOLF

Calandro bested O'Malley for championship-flight honors, with Ras trapping Nixon in the first-flight. Blunt, Perez and Crawley won out in 2nd, 3rd, and 4th flights, respectively, over Umbach, Devlin and Layne.

YACHTING

Bud Barrett, 1st-semester commodore of the Mobile Yacht Club-based Hill sailors, arranged a full schedule of Sunday competitions for his mates. and with crewman Tim Murray won the Gulf Yachting Association's Fall Regatta. Bad luck (weather) cancelled the Gulfport regatta schedule by the Southern Intercollegiate Yachting Association, but Borrett (elected vice-commodore of the association) has begun plans for a Spring Hill-sponsored invitational regatta here next April 7-8. Among the same 2-dozen Hill sailors are also Lou Ray, Marilyn Johnson and Merrill True (2nd-semester commodore).

JUDO

A non-varsity sports newcomer this year. Father Freeman gathered a band of enthusiasts who cleaned up and equipped a small gym on the first floor of Quinlan, where "Key-Clubbers" could work out with their weights and get judo instruction from Dennis Sams, who had been on Army instructor in the sport. They hope to train a 9-man squad for future intercollegiate rivalries.

LT. COL. JAMES H. REYNOLDS, U. S. Army, Commanding Officer

IN MEMORIAM

En route to ROTC Summer Camp at Fort Benning, Captain Joseph Sherman had a cerebral hemorrhage which led to an operation from which he did not recover. Since coming to the Hill in 1958 as assistant to Lt. Col. Reynolds, Captain Sherman had been an extremely popular moderator of the Pershing Rifles. His efforts were crowned this year when they were awarded the Father O'Leary Trophy as the organization which contributed most to Spring Hill's spirit.

"LAST BUT NOT LEAST..."

International Relations Club

We finally located the lost negative for the photo alongside, so we can do belated justice to a busy organization, which sponsored lectures on Algeria and the Foreign Aid Program. There was also a program of documentary movies on Hawaii, South Africa and Germany. Members also attended the twice-monthly meetings of Mobile's Foreign Policy Association, and prodded interest in Mr. Carleton Smith's lecture: "The Battle for Men's Minds" sponsored by the College's Lecture and Concert Series.

Left: 1960-61 Officers are Jim Higgins, program director; Jack Hildner, president (replacing Harold Kay and Jim Murphy); Dave Henderson, veep; Bill Schemmel, secretary-treasurer.

Spring Hill ALUMNI Association

Besides sponsoring the party at the Colony Restaurant, where the Class of 1960 was inducted into Alumni membership, the Alumni also had their own Christmas Party and the Alumni Homecoming Feb. 5-7. Illinois state senator Phil Carey, '40, served as MC at the Country Club banquet, during which Mr. Sam Betty was honored as "Alumnus of the Year" by Omicron Fraternity. Guest speaker was Mr. Bill Daly, former football coach and athletic director here. National Alumni Officers for 1960-62 are Sam Betty, '39 Mobile, President; Vic Lott, Mobile, 1st vice-president; John Kopecky, '34, Washington, D. C., 2nd vice-president; Phil Carey, '40; Chicago, 3rd vice-president; George Dolan, ex-'38, 4th vice-president; and T. D. Bell, '37, Mobile, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Carey, Lott, Bobby Wilkins, Pat Mulherin, Col. Mark Roy, Celestino Vega, Harold Bahlinger, Glenn Travis, Reggie Copeland, Albert Reynolds, Jr., and Bill Lee.

Right: Mr. T. D. Bell, president of the Mobile Alumni, oversees preparations for one of the beer-and-shrimp parties held here by his group.

As the task of assembling this 1960 Spring Hill College yearbook nears its end, we cannot help but be impressed by the great amount of energy being expended here on the Hill, and by the results obtained. Which raises the question: How much is our Mobile community, or an even wider circle, aware of Spring Hill's accomplishments—and even greater needs? The task of making our Alma Mater known and respected is largely the job of her students and alumni. This task has always been assisted by a loyal core of businessmen who have given both encouragement and financial assistance — as is witnessed by the support of our ADVERTISERS. Give them YOUR support in return.
